Undergraduate Academic Code – Addendum

Due to the unusual circumstances arising in the aftermath of the COVID-19 pandemic, the following changes are in effect for Spring Semester 2020.

1.0 LEAVE OF ABSENCE POLICY

The Leave of Absence policy under section 6.1 of the Undergraduate Academic Code is being expanded for the remainder of the spring 2020 semester.

If an undergraduate student must cease enrollment due to health–related circumstances (e.g., contracting COVID-19 or being required to care for a family member that has contracted the virus) or unforeseen changes in academic programming (e.g., cancelled or unavailable coursework) in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic, the student may, no later than April 29, seek a Leave of Absence for Spring Semester 2020. Such a leave requires appropriate documentation and is subject to the discretion and approval of the dean (or dean’s designee) of the student’s primary degree-seeking college or school, after consultation with other University officials (e.g., UHS) as appropriate. If granted, the student must resume full-time study by the first class day in Fall Semester 2020. Any student granted a leave who does not return by this date will be considered withdrawn and will be required to go through the readmission process.

All students returning from COVID-19 related LOAs granted in Spring 2020 must receive a health clearance from UHS and an academic clearance from the dean (or dean’s designee) in their college to resume full-time study.

This one-time expansion of Section 6.1 of the Undergraduate Academic Code does not apply to students in the Graduate School, Law School, Mendoza Graduate Business Programs, and graduate programs sponsored by the Keough School of Global Affairs or the School of Architecture. All post-baccalaureate students should refer to their college or school for leave policies specific to their degree program.

2.0 Spring 2020 Undergraduate Grading Option

Rationale for Proposed Option

Circumstances surrounding the public health emergency related to the COVID-19 pandemic have disrupted the instructional environment for both students and faculty. In some cases, the tools and methods for evaluating student learning that were available at the beginning of the semester may no longer be available to the faculty member for the second half of the semester. Necessary changes in both instructional modalities and in approaches to student evaluation will be unsettling to many students. A grading option for spring 2020 is proposed that is hoped to relieve some student anxiety and to promote persistence in courses that the student might otherwise drop.

A P/NC Option

The current P/F grading option will be modified to a P/NC option. The NC grade is a new, Spring Semester 2020 only, grade at Notre Dame. The NC grade replaces an F grade in the P/F option. Neither the P nor the NC will be used in the computation of a student’s Grade Point Average (GPA). This is in contrast to the P/F option, in which an F grade is included in the computation of a GPA. Grades of A through D will be converted to a P (Pass) grade. The grade of F will be converted to a NC (No Credit) grade.
Undergraduate grades are due May 11, 2020. Undergraduates will be able to view all standard letter course grades of A through F on May 12, 2020. From May 12 through May 29, 2020, undergraduate students may file with their academic dean (or dean’s designee) a request to switch any Spring 2020 course grade from A through F to P/NC, with the exception of courses that concluded prior to March 13, 2020.

The request will be made in the insideND portal. The Office of the Registrar will provide instructions for the electronic P/NC election later this semester. Please note that the default grade mode for courses currently utilizing the standard A through F letter grade format remains in place. Only those students who affirm in insideND a switch to P/NC between May 12th and May 29th will be able to have this grade mode adjusted. Students must have a minimum of 12 credit hours with a standard letter grade of A through F to be eligible for dean’s list recognition.

Summary of Proposed Changes to P/F Grading Option for Spring 2020

- F grade is replaced with the NC (no credit) grade, which is not used in GPA computation
- P/NC option is available to first-year students and sophomores as well as juniors and seniors
- Students may elect P/NC option after they see Spring 2020 grades on May 12, 2020
- Any standard letter grade courses of A through F can be switched to P/NC by student request and decanal approval
- P/NC option may be used for courses in the major, university requirements, or college requirements

It is worth noting that while the motivation for the P/F grading option is to encourage students to explore courses outside of their comfort zone (especially courses outside their major), the motivation for the P/NC option is to encourage persistence in courses required for degree completion that students are taking under extraordinary circumstances.

3.3.11 Pass/Fail Option: Junior or senior undergraduates may file with their academic dean (or the dean’s designee), during the first six class days of the semester, the decision to take on a pass/fail basis one course per semester that is classified by the Registrar as a “Standard Grade Mode Course.” The course must be outside the student’s major(s). Courses taken to satisfy University, college, or major requirements may not be taken on a pass/fail basis. Only the first course in a student’s minor track may be taken on a pass/fail basis. Faculty, departments, and colleges may refuse pass/fail requests for selected courses. If approved, the filing is irrevocable and will result in conversion by the University Registrar of the instructor’s final grade report into an entry of “P” (pass) or “F” (fail) on the student’s record. The instructor will not be informed that the student has elected the pass/fail grading option. The University Registrar will interpret the final letter grades of “A” through “D” as pass. These grades will not be computed into the student’s grade-point average. If a final grade of “F” is issued, it will be computed into the student’s grade-point average.
